From the days of antiquity it has always been a problem unsolved how to insure the secrecy of letters. A Frenchman named Phion claims, however, to have discovered the real method, which is as simple as the egg of Columbus. The invention is thus to insure fit the gummed end of the upper righthand corner, which is slit. The tongue is inserted, and further fixed by the stamp struck over it. The system is simplicity itself, and, except for ripping open the envelope or tearing off the stamp, it is impossible to get at

Her Dislike Too Vigorous. A woman in an English country town took an unusual way of expressing her dislike of the pastor. While the congregation was standing, during the singing of an anthem, she rushed up the chancel steps and began throwing hymn books at the minister, and finally exclaimed: "Take him from the church!" The minister was greatly astonished, knowing nothing of the disorder until he was struck in the back. He thought a stone had fallen from the roof. In court the woman evpressed regret.

Eggshells in Surgery.

In a number of skin-grafting operations he has recently carried out, a Philadelphia physician has used the lining of egg shells instead of human skin. One of the patients he is reported to have successfully treated in this way was a woman, who had the skin burned off her back. The physician declares that the suffering which has been imposed on human donors of skin for such operations is unnecessary. Only fresh eggs may be used.

Ten-Year-Old Julia Gets Into Bad Graces of Mother by Giving Tramp a Half-Dollar.

"Be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."

The foregoing quotation is from chapter 13, verse 2, Book of Hebrews, and it is introduced solely because it constitutes a vital part of this story. Julia is ten years old and she goes to Sunday school. It appears that on a recent occasion the Sunday school teacher had considerable to say about this matter of "entertaining angels unawares." Anyway, it made a deep mpression with Julia.

A few days after the lesson Julia's mother left her in charge of the house for a few hours. When the mother returned she went to a particular cup in the cupboard to extract therefrom one-half dollar. In this cup is kept the family pin money, and Julia's mother knew that she had put fifty cents there before she had gone out. But the half dollar was gone. There was an expression of anxiety on Julia's face and mother scented mis-

"Did you take that money?" asked the mother, somewhat severely. Julia broke into tears. "I gave it to a man that came to the back door." sobbed the little girl.

"Gave it to a man!" exclaimed the mother. "What for?" "I thought he might be God," tear fully replied Julia. Kansas City Star.
